Boston, March 15.—The four eight-

A. tonight all went the limit. In the first preliminary, Kid Shea of Augusta, Me., won the decision over Tommy Langdon of Philadelphia.

In the semi-final Tommy O'Keefe of Philadelphia gave away a lot of weight to Frank Peterson of Pawtucket, but won the decision.

Jimmy Walsh and Al Delmont of this city furnished a fast final. Referee Fishery calling it a draw. The yells of the excited partisans. Walsh had somewhat the best of the early rounds, but Delmont finished strong.

SCHUYLKILL REGATTA.
Date Made May 21—New Eligibility Rules for Junior College Eight.

Philadelphia, March 15.—In announcing that the annual regatta of the American Rowing association would be held this year on the Schuylkill river May 21, the board of stewards also gave notice of an important change of the eligibility rules regarding the feature of the event of the programme, the race for junior college eights.

Heretofore this event has been limited to oarsmen who have never rowed in a college crew. Now, however, a "varsity shell," but hereafter such oarsmen will be eligible in case they are at the time not members of a varsity crew.

Secretary Clement B. Wood of Harvard announced that two new stewards had agreed to serve on the board.
They are W. W. Roper, the new athletic director of Princeton, who takes the place of C. C. Cuyler, and R. F.
Harrick, who succeeds Oliver Filley of Harvard.

SMITH WINS MARATHON.
Runs Johnson and Gentilello Off Their Feet at New London Armory.

A Marathon race over the regulation distance was won in 3 hours 13 minutes in the New London armory Tuesday night by Wilbur Smith from Joe Gentilello and Samuel Johnson.
The race was a complete rout for the track before completing the distance.
A crowd of 500 watched the run and enjoyed dancing in the space inside the 10-lap track. The race started at 8.29 and was over in 23 min.

Johnson led at the start and the first mile was done in 7 1-2 minutes.
At the end of an hour they had done exactly 10 miles with Smith leading.
Several times in the race both Johnson and Gentilello had to leave the track, but Smith was in fine condition and stuck to a good gallop, leading out, finishing in good shape. He steadily drew away from the other two after the 16th mile.

After the 20th mile, Johnson had to retire, suffering from cramps, and Gentilello gave up when he had finished 24 miles and 10 laps, not being able to finish the 26 miles 385 yards, which make up the Marathon distance.

WESTERLY JUST WINS.
Two-Pin Margin on Stone and Mc-Clafferty—Norwich Postmen Meet Defeat.

A classy finish by Holdsworth and Bliven in their ninth and tenth boxes of the game, giving them two strings over the century mark, rescued them from defeat on the Westerly alleys on Tuesday evening in the first five games of their ten-game series with Manager 5211 and 5211 McClafferty of Norwich. The Norwich pair won three games out of the five, but total pinfall settled the match 324 to 325 in favor of Westerly's two.

Stone and McClafferty got the jump on their rivals in the first two games, pinning up a lead of 23 pins, but Elliott's single in the third did a lot for bringing Westerly up, as the score then stood Norwich 563, Westerly 561. The deciding game was an 11-pin lead at the end of the match. The concluding five games which settle the ownership of the title, the score was 112 to 107 here

Two Star Twirlers Compared—Matty Has It on Pittsburgh Star.

Christopher Mathewson of the Giants and St. Howard Camnitz of the Pirates who topped the list of winning pitchers of the National league last year, both did grand work, grander than any other pitcher's official records show.
Fans nowadays size up the ability of a salman only by the showing he makes in games won and lost, which isn't the best way to show his sand and speed, there will be something doing.

Wicks is to be given a chance to
